SUBJECT: Talking Points for Meeting with Secretary of State Shultz

1. Interagency Group meetings on formulation of a revised United States position on the autonomy talks are continuing. The Secretary is about to receive a draft of the group's current thinking. The attached cover note from Richard Fairbanks to him reflects the direction the group is going, and the fact that a prolonged period of conflict situations with Israel is likely. Please note the Secretary may not yet have received it.

2. This group is dealing only with a redefinition of the peace process, and specifically with the possibility of an explicit outlining of the American definition of this process in ways we have not done before. This is only one arrow in our quiver to bring about the desired result of an acceptable policy on the issue. I believe we must keep this fact in mind as we proceed, as there is a danger that the restructured peace process will be considered as the entire policy, and not merely a portion of the whole. My memorandum to you of yesterday (attached) outlines several other options as well.
